GRIEF AND GRIEVING

60. Surviving death : stories of grief [Videorecording]

Year: 1998
Call number: VTR/BF 575/.G7/S8/1998

This video is about people in a new relationship with life after losing a loved one. Seven people - parents, children, siblings, partners and friends - reveal how they have been affected by the death of someone close to them. The people profiled in the video come from different cultural backgrounds; they hope their stories will allow others to begin expressing and understanding their own grief. They speak about the pain and powerful emotions they have experienced, about their need to reassess values and relationships after a death, and about the ways they have found to survive their loss. Recognizing that there is no single or easy path to recovery, this video is a useful resource for those in grief and for those lending support to people who are grieving.

SMOKING--PREVENTION

61. Barb Tarbox : a life cut short by tobacco [videorecording]

Year: 2003
Call number: VTR/HV 5745/.B3/2003
Grades: Sr. 1-Sr. 4; Adult; VHS

After being diagnosed with terminal lung cancer in September 2002, Barb Tarbox devoted the last months of her life to speaking out about the dangers of smoking. She died May 18, 2003 - one of the more than 45,000 Canadians who die each year from tobacco-related diseases. This video contains powerful and emotional material that reinforces the tobacco reduction messages Barb was able to deliver in person.
