Bridging the river of silence [videorecording] [ajdx]

Call Number           VTR/HV 6626/.B75/1991
Adult                   Duration 65 min.

A beautiful, quiet Canadian town is the setting for three stories of wife assault and abuse. The cycle of violence is portrayed through the women's experiences, particularly the story of Susan as she prepares for her abusive husband's trial. Also important is the unique model of cooperation between police, the Crown Attorney, and workers in a shelter for battered women. Interviews with the women are featured in the context of the messages that women receive from the authorities, the media and advertising on their role in society, and as a partner in a relationship.

Broken Trust [videorecording] [alpa]

Call Number           VTR/HV 6626.5/.B7/1988
Adult                   Duration 28 minutes

The Addictions Foundation of Manitoba Library

The causes and consequences of child abuse are discussed. Child care experts and child abuse victims give straight answers to difficult questions: What to do if you are being abused; What to do if someone you know is being abused; How to respond when someone tells you he or she is being abused. It also teaches teens how to break the cycle of violence before they become the next generation of abusive parents.

Child sexual abuse : the untold secret [videorecording] [ajeI]

Call Number VTR/HV 6626.5/.C45/1981
Adult Duration 30 min.

Calgary social workers Peggy Mayes and Caroline Anderson explore the experiences of five adolescent girls who were sexually abused by their fathers, and who suffered alone for years because they were afraid to tell. When these young victims tell their stories, they bring home the helplessness of children who are betrayed by those they should be able to trust above all others. By telling their secret, they move us to face our responsibility to believe, and protect , our children.

Children of the eagle [videorecording] [aiwg]

Call Number VTR/E 98/.C5/P55/1990
Adult Includes video and resource handb1990

This resource kit was developed to provide support to child sexual abuse victims and their families of the Peigan Band. For victims of child sexual abuse, the healing process is paramount if they are to grow into healthy adults.

Fires of transformation [videorecording] [ajgy]

Call Number VTR/HV 6626/.F57/1991
Adult Duration 60 min.

A group of women demonstrate the courage and bravery in surviving the vicious cycle of wife assault through an original play. Scenes from the play, based on true-life experiences, are intermingled with interviews with the women as they discuss how their strength has grown from the support of others.

I am one of them : mothers speak out about incest [videorecording] [ajhw]

Call Number VTR/HV 6626.5/.I3/1989
Adult Duration 30 min.

Lorna, Deborah, Catherine and Olive are four mothers of children who have been sexually abused by their fathers. This video is about the ill-fated efforts of these women to protect their children and bring the offenders to justice. Their experiences have been very painful, but they speak out of strength about survival.

In our defence [videorecording] [ajhz]

Call Number VTR/HV 6626/.I56/1991

Senior High Duration 29 min.

This is the story of three women in their early twenties caught up in unsatisfactory relationships with men and poses the question : "Why would some people want to abuse others?" Told in a dramatic story line, this film is interspersed with documentary footage of statements from counsellors, police and legal experts and reflects Canadian society and Canadian law.
