Abstract: Women who use drugs or alcohol during pregnancy have historically been treated in a punitive manner. This book brings together a number of Canadian authors who are working and writing about substance use and pregnancy, mothering, harm reduction, and woman-centered services. All the contributors are directly involved in providing and managing services. They propose that drugs are one factor among many that shape pregnancy and mothering and, although drug use is a risk, it is a manageable one. They advocate providing compassionate care to all pregnant women, mothers, and their children.

The book will provide practioners and researchers with valuable information about maternal drug use, harm reduction, best practices, and policy. It provides a groundbreaking critical and feminist template for organizations in a wide range of fields including nursing, social work, medicine, public health, child development, and addictions.

Call number: KIT/RG 629/.F45/A53/1992

A slide program for teaching professionals about all aspects of the effect of alcohol and other drugs on the fetus. Includes such information as: - historical studies, - diagnosis, definitions of FAS,
- alcohol's effect on the developing fetus, - psychoactive and physiologic effects of cocaine, heroin and marijuana on the fetus, - intervention techniques for FAS children, - strategies for patients at risk for drinking or drug abuse .

An Avoidable tragedy [videorecording] [198-?] [ajdp]

Call number: VTR/RG 629/.F45/A85/198-

This profile introduces the viewer to several families where Fetal Alcohol Syndrome exists, as they discuss the pain and frustration of coping daily with the condition. Although FAS is suspected to be the world's leading cause of mental retardation, very little exists in the way of medical support and treatment resources.

Babies-in-waiting [videorecording] 1992 [ajdq]

Call number: VTR/RG 627.6/.D79/B33/1992

Combines animated unborn babies with real-life mothers in order to motivate adolescents and their families to avoid the harmful effects of using alcohol, tobacco and other drugs during pregnancy.

Baby's first gift [videorecording] 1994 [ajdr]

Call number: VTR/RG 629/.F45/B33/1994

The Addictions Foundation of Manitoba
Library

Video describes a pre-natal substance abuse prevention program in Texas. Good ideas for a community wanting to begin an FAS/FAE initiative.

Caring together [videorecording] [1996] [ajmg]

Call number: VTR/RG 627.5/.C3/1996

Developed by and for Aboriginal people, this video emphasizes the importance of care and responsible behaviour during pregnancy.

A Challenge to care [videorecording] 1991 [ajei]

Call number: VTR/RG 627.6/.D79/C43/1991

This program sheds new light on the problems of substance abuse in pregnancy. It was created to define addiction, humanize the substance abusing woman, and offer specific strategies to health providers and social workers who care for pregnant and newly parenting women with chemical dependencies.

Cocaine babies [videorecording] 1989 [ajev]

Call number: VTR/RG 627.6/.D79/C63/1989

This tape looks at the devastating effects of cocaine and crack on America's children. The hospital ward where the piercing cries of cocaine addicted babies are endlessly heard is telling testimony to the power of these drugs.

Cry for help : a fetal drug and alcohol crisis [videorecording] 1991 [ajff]

Call number: VTR/RG 627.6/.D79/C78/1991

In this program, medical, substance abuse, and social service professionals examine the immediate dangers and long-term developmental difficulties that can result in children from their mother's drug and alcohol abuse. Chemically dependent mothers, especially those addicted to cocaine and crack, relate how the all-consuming horror of their addictions placed maintaining the "high" over personal welfare, dignity or even the safety of an unborn child.

David with FAS : a story of Fetal Alcohol Syndrome

[videorecording] 1996 [ajxs]

Call number: VTR/RG 629/.F45/D3/1996

David Vandenbrink seems like a normal 21-year-old, bright and articulate. There is little to suggest that while in his mother's womb, he suffered permanent brain damage. His condition, Fetal Alcohol Syndrome (FAS), went undiagnosed for the first 18 years of his life, causing confusion, anger, and pain for both David and his adoptive family. This personal story, using video footage shot by David himself, along with the experiences of members of his family, is a hard look into the serious consequences of a little-known, but widespread, health problem.

The Doctor is in - pregnancy [videorecording] 199- [aleq]

Series: The Doctor is in

Call number: VTR/RG 627.6/.D79/D6/199-

A look at how neonates develop. Discusses the impact of what pregnant women eat and drink, FAS is vividly described and new research on how fathers' exposure to toxic substances can harm fetuses is also discussed.

Drugs, smoking and alcohol during pregnancy [videorecording] 1982 [ajgc]

Call number: VTR/RG 627.6/.D79/D78/1982

Through animated sequences - shows the effects of drugs, alcohol and tobacco on the developing fetus.

The Fabulous F.A.S. quiz show [kit] 1993 [ajkn]

Call number: KIT/RG 629/.F45/F33/1993

This package, with information about the prevention of FAS/FAE, was designed for students in grades six through nine. The video and guide are intended to be tools to help students explore the difficult issues of substance use and sexuality in their lives and lead them to safer and healthier choices.

Faces yet to come : the 7th generation Fetal Alcohol Syndrome (FAS) Fetal Alcohol Effects (FAE) prevention : curriculum guide c1997 [akmi]

Faces yet to come [videorecording] 1997 [akmg]

Call number: VTR/RG 629/.F45/F33/1997

Informs the viewer about Fetal Alcohol Syndrome. The video shows how Native views of spirituality, the earth, and the significance of the Seventh Generation promote the well-being of future generations.

FAS/E Northern commercial [videorecording] 1996 [ajnh]

Call number: VTR/RG 629/.F45/F374/1996

This short commercial is first presented in English and then repeated in Cree. The commercial deals with the subject of fetal alcohol syndrome and its effects.

Fetal alcohol exposure : changing the future [DVD]

Access Key: aups
Call Number: DVD/RG 629/.F45/F38/2006

How are fetal alcohol spectrum disorders diagnosed? What are the primary and secondary disabilities with FASD? And – most important of all – what is the human cost?

This program addresses these questions through the firsthand experiences of Ann Streissguth, director of the University of Washington's Fetal Alcohol and Drug Unit; Kathy Mitchell, vice president of NOFAS; Erica Lara, who works at a residential drug and alcohol treatment facility designed especially for women with young children; and Erica Gitis-Miles, a college student who had FASD. The in utero effects of alcohol are considered as well, as are the facial, bodily, neurological, cognitive, and behavioural characteristics of FASD.

Fetal alcohol syndrome [videorecording] 1992 [ajdh]

Call number: VTR/RG 629/.F45/F47/1992

Mary Atkins, a recovering alcoholic and a mother, drank throughout her pregnancies and fears that this has hurt her kids. Now an alcoholism counsellor on the Six Nations' Reserve,

The Addictions Foundation of Manitoba
Library

Mary shares her story in this video. The dangers of drinking during pregnancy are examined and Fetal Alcohol Syndrome is explained.

Genetic responsibility : a father's part [videorecording] 1993 [ajhd]

Call number: VTR/RG 627.5/.D79/G45/1993

A CBC : Prime Time News production. Can a father's health and behaviour affect the health of his children? Although often overlooked because of a cultural blindspot, a father's drug use, chemical therapies, cigarette smoking, and exposure to environmental and occupational hazards can cause problems during conception and pregnancy, birth defects, and childhood cancer +according to research.

Healing the broken cord [videorecording] 1991 [ajhp]

Call number: VTR/RG 627.6/.D79/H43/1991

This conference takes place in South Dakota for Native People on the subject of fetal alcohol syndrome. Various speakers deal with issues such as leadership, denial, alcoholism in the community and recovery. Also includes a youth forum. Kids discuss alcoholism, family life, FAS, etc.

Helping families - helping children [videorecording] 1997 [akll]

Call number: VTR/RG 629/.F45/H4/1997

Designed for parents who have children newborn to six years affected by FAS or FAE. Information about FAS/FAE is provided as well as concrete ways for parents to support their young children to develop to their full potential.

Here's to healthy babies! : a review of the effects of alcohol, drugs and tobacco on pregnancy [kit] 1998 [akwr]
