DVD'S, KITS AND VIDEOS

Balance - healing through helping [videorecording]

Grades 7 – 8 44 minutes
Call number: VTR/E 98/.Y68/B3/1997

This video is a look into the lives of many of our First Nations, Inuit and Metis youth in Canada. They talk frankly about issues that affect their everyday lives and how they feel about the situations that they are faced with. The youth talk about peer pressure, family values, physical fitness, goals, personal health and other topics. The video was filmed on location throughout the country and includes excerpts from Toronto's cosmopolitan to Canada's far north.

Making the leap to highschool [Videorecording]

Grades 7 – 12; 11 minutes
Call number: VTR/BF/637/.B4/M3/2001

This video shows five Public Service Announcements (PSA), created by high school students. Each one contains a different message for grade school students about how to “make the leap” into high school. The vignettes deal with body image, responsible decision making, drinking and driving, and general health issues. The students themselves appear in the video, and provide discussion points for the classroom viewers.

Natural helpers : Peer-helping program [kit]

Grades 9 – 12

Call number: KIT/LB 1027.5/.N3/1993

Natural helpers provides training to students and adults who are already serving as helpers. It gives them skills to help others more effectively; it gives them places to turn to when they're not able to help.

Peer intervention : drug abuse [videorecording]

Grades 7 – adult

17 minutes

Call number: VTR/HQ 799.2/.P44/P44/1990

This film shows young people what to do if they decide to intervene in a friend's drug use. It stresses that intervening is not risk free and nobody should feel that they must become involved. They're also helped to recognize the difference between a problem and a crisis of emergency and to know how to get help.

With a little help from my friends : peer support video for healthier lifestyles [videorecording]

Adult

Two programs; 20 minutes and 7 minutes

Call number: VTR/BF 637/.B4/W5/1996

The video is designed to increase lifestyle change success rates by teaching skills for those already interested in changing a lifestyle practice. Also useful for planning how best to support the lifestyle change efforts of friends, family and co-workers.
